FIGHT THE BITE

Supervisor Greg Cox and County health officials will kick off the new West Nile Virus season with the first helicopter larvicide drop of 2011. County officials will also discuss what has been done to fight West Nile Virus and how the public can help.

10 a.m., Wednesday, May 4, Fenton Pond, Chula Vista

A TIME TO REMEMBER

Supervisor Greg Cox will attend the annual San Diego County Law Enforcement Memorial at the County Administration Center. This year's ceremony will honor CHP Officer Daniel Benavides and SDPD Officer Christopher Wilson, as well as all County law enforcement officers who have given their lives in the line of duty.

Noon, Wednesday, May 4, Harbor Drive, County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway.

CREATING A HEALTHY SAN DIEGO

Supervisor Greg Cox will participate with community leaders in a new approach to fight obesity and prevent chronic diseases. A coalition of South County organizations is working to improving neighborhood conditions that contributed to poor health.

10 a.m. Friday, May 6, Suzie's Farm, 1856 Saturn Boulevard, San Diego.

RACING DRAGONS

Supervisor Greg Cox will help kick off the 7th Annual San Diego Dragon Boat Festival, featuring races between teams of competitors from local companies. Supervisor Cox helps dot the eyes of one of the dragon boats, an annual tradition. The races are part of the Asian Pacific Heritage Festival held each year in Mission Bay.

9 a.m. Saturday, May 7, Playa Pacifica, Mission Bay Park.
